NOTES OF THE DIAMOND.

Washington and Detroit are scheduled to begin their concluding series of the season in this city this afternoon.

Manager McPhee, of the Cincinnatis, has signed Gus Weyhing, the veteran pitcher, in the hope of strengthening his staff of twirlers.

Ban Johnson declares the National League magnates will come across some legal objections if they attempt to withdraw their protection from the minor leagues on September 30. "That agreement extends until the first of next year," he said, "and they have no legal or moral right to do away with it before then. The minor leagues have paid for protection and are entitled to it for the full year."

Two hits off such a pitcher as Nops is not so had. That was Jordan's record yesterday. With a little more seasoning fordan will be all right.

Manager McGraw, of the Orioles, has been asked to select two teams of American League players to go to California in the fall, playing exhibition games going out, and has consented to do so. The promoters of the scheme do not want to make public their names as yet. McGraw has already selected some of his players, but the teams will not be made up and route fixed for some time yet.

Mc-Kale, second base; H. Chick, pitcher; M. Johnson, third bese; F. Callaway, shortstop; C. Gladman, right field; J. Parks, left field; E. Keefe, centre field. The Columbias would like to arrange games with all teams in the city whose average age is fourteen years. Send challenges to C. Ashton, 2614 L. Street northwest.
